The CSU-Pueblo Baseball Program is proud to offer an opportunity for kids of all ages to improve their baseball skills. With the excitement of CSU-Pueblo baseball being recognized as one of the top collegiate baseball programs in the country, it is only fitting that a high level baseball camp is offered to the youth in the southern Colorado region. The Christmas Camp is an energized ThuderWolves approach to quality instruction in a positive learning environment aimed at enhancing each student's baseball development. The baseball program at CSU-Pueblo encourages you to take full advantage of this exciting baseball opportunity and learn how to play with a "PACK Mentality"!

The camp will feature personalized instruction from:

Stan Sanchez, CSU-Pueblo Head Baseball Coach

Travis Humphrey, CSU-Pueblo Assistant Coach

Tony Wittmus, CSU-Pueblo Assistant Coach

Mike Massaro, Assistant Coach

John Vaughn, Assistant Coach

Warning Statement & Waiver and Release

Participating in baseball camps requires an acceptance of risk of injury. Colorado State University-Pueblo has taken reasonable precautions to minimize the risk of significant injury by providing competent coaching and instruction, well-maintained equipment and facilities, proper conditioning and good medical care.

The chances of an athlete sustaining a catastrophic sports injury are extremely remote, yet understand that serious injuries can happen to anyone. Participation in your sport could result in death, serious nerve and spinal injuries which may result in a complete or partial paralysis, brain damage, serious injury to virtually all internal organs, serious injury to virtually all bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, tendons, and other aspects of the musculoskeletal system, and serious injury or impairment to other aspects of your body, general health and well being.
EACH ONE OF YOU RISKS BECOMING TRAGICALLY INJURED

With this understanding, the undersigned do hereby WAIVE and RELEASE Colorado State University - Pueblo, faculty and staff, from all liability, arising out of any sickness or injury, including death, that may occur while participating in a sports camp
NOTE: All persons under the age of eighteen (18) are required to have a parent or guardian complete this form as a means of saving precious time in the unlikely event of the necessity for medical treatment while attending baseball camp.
